

NEWS

(Harmony, PA) Berry Metal, the world's leading equipment designer and manufacturer of advanced technologies for the Iron and Steel Industry, is proud to announce that David Werner, a 12 year veteran in the iron and steel industry, has been named President and Chief Operating Officer of the company.

His appointment was effective in September of 2016. Werner has held several other positions within the company since joining Berry in 2005. He also served as Director of Finance & Operations, Vice President and General Manager, and Chief Operating Officer.

David R. Werner
President and Chief Operating Officer

Prior to his Berry Metal career, Werner worked for Adams Manufacturing Corp and Dick's Sporting Goods.

About Berry Metal:

Berry Metal Company, headquartered in Harmony, PA, is the world's leading provider of BOF, EAF, and Blast Furnace technology including engineered solutions, equipment, and repair services. The company maintains locations in Pennsylvania, Indiana, China, and Europe.