

Berry Metal has been selected to provide a new design of copper cooling plates to a Blast Furnace in Michigan for a reline scheduled for September 2024.

Berry Metal has worked with the Project Team and Owner's Engineering firm to optimize the design for this lining application and develop a delivery schedule that fits the reline project schedule.